

Talks, Workshops and Personal Appearances - costs

I can provide talks, workshops and personal appearances – book signings, Q&A panels, network events.

I view the opportunity to promote resilience as a chance to involve you in an adventure!

Resilience has its role in the workplace, and I'm happy to engage with businesses. I'd like the concept to be available to community groups, charities and even groups of interested individuals as well, hence the accessible prices.

Here's a guide to these, for your budgeting. Please call 01749 679530 to discuss details.

£30 per hour for talks, workshops and personal appearances

You provide:-

- a venue, with convenient car parking
- an audience
- travel expenses [distance in miles between your venue post code and BA5 1RE multiplied by £0.70 provides for a return journey]
- plus any tolls, ferries, parking fees etc
- overnight accommodation if your venue is over 100 miles from BA5 1RE
- any sound, screen or projector equipment you'd like me to use

For events outside Somerset, there is a minimum booking of one hour.

Talks are designed to fill an hour slot, but can be adjusted.

Workshops should be for a maximum of twelve people.

If these charges are still beyond your means, I embark on regular tours. You can lower my travel costs by fitting your event in with one of these. Resilience Handbooks are available to groups at a reduced rate if you order a minimum of ten from me in advance of your event.
